NALG Scholarship Recipients

The National Association of Left Handed Golfers (NALG) has announced its inaugural NALG Ben Richter scholarship winners. Richter, a left-handed golf professional, sent invitations to over 5000 lefties of which 147 participated in the first lefty championship in 1936. Two local left-handed golfers have won the awards.

J. Michael Myers, a senior at Lewis Cass High School won a scholarship of $2000. Myers plans to double-major in political science and business and then attend Harvard Law School.

Since this is the first year for the scholarship, a second scholarship of $1000 has been awarded to Canaan Horner, a senior at Kokomo High School. Horner plans to attend Ursuline College and major in business management or accounting.

If you are a senior in high school and a left-handed golfer, plan to apply next year. More information can be found on www.nalg.org
